

Privacy Notice - Data Protection Act 1998 – for Staff

AGGS are the Data Controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act.

Personal data is held by the school about those employed or otherwise engaged to work at the school. This is to assist in the smooth running of the school and/or enable individuals to be paid. The collection of this information will benefit both national and local users by:

- Improving the management of school workforce data across the sector;
- Enabling a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed to be built up;
- Informing the development of recruitment and retention policies;
- Allowing better financial modeling and planning;
- Enabling ethnicity and disability monitoring; and
- Supporting the work of the School Teachers' Review Body.

Staff photographs are used for identification purposes but are not published without consent.

This personal data includes some or all of the following - identifiers such as name and National Insurance Number and characteristics such as photographs, ethnic group; employment contract and remuneration details, qualifications and absence information.

We will not give information about you to anyone outside the school, Trust or Local Authority (LA) without your consent unless the law and our rules allow us to.

We are required by law to pass on some of this data to:

- the LA
- the Department for Education (DfE)

It may also be necessary for us to share information with the Bright Futures Trust.

If you require more information about how the LA and/or DfE store and use this data please go to the following websites:
